

Chapter V: Fulfillment of a Nightmare

Notch: So, Light Steve, what exactly did you talk about with Dreadlord?

Light Steve: Dreadlord wants to have a tranquil conversation with you all once you get to the Far Lands, he says he has 3 friends who you would probably like to meet.

Notch: Okay, anything else?

Light Steve: He wants to make it clear that he's rather innocent, he was forced into this as Bloodlust's doormat. He said Bloodlust demanded 3 people be infected, and that they would become the concrete Matrix of all Evil. Sounded to me like Darkness, one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, Death, one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, and Bloodlust need living hosts to do something.

Null: So the Matrix is gonna get inside us?

Light Steve: Well now that you've lost the Bloodlust, you- Oh my good God.

Alex: What?

Light Steve: That's why Dreadlord wants you to come to him. To bring Herobrine and Null back into the infection, so the Matrix can manipulate the three of you. You can't go.

Null: What??

Light Steve: If Dreadlord contains the 3 of them in his territory, he will advise the Matrix into them, and who knows what they could do in the flesh.

Steve: You want us to just go back home?

Light Steve: Well and Null and Herobrine certainly can't go.

Null: I'm willing to take that risk, I outsmarted the 7 heroes to the point that they had to bring an asteroid down to attempt to kill me!

Light Steve: I figured you would be fine. I'm sure you can outmaneuver Dreadlord, it's the lazy marathoner I'm concerned about.

Speaking of...

Herobrine: Laying out the final parts and details, what do you think?

Jonas: It's excellent, maybe the villagers can use it for the zombie swarm next year.

Herobrine: I know, there's a whole entire- wait, what?

Jonas: This village has a particular zombie attack every 80 years.

Herobrine: ...

Jonas: I'll go talk to the village, you can finish up.

...

Herobrine: God help us.

Back at Magmyzodon...

Notch: I know what's best, and if it takes such drastic measures, Herobrine will be kept hidden.

Light Steve: I know both of these choices could have a consequence, I just hope you don't get consequented by Bloodlust.

Null: We have to do this, we need to kill this monster that led the Matrix into our lives, and we need to free Entity 303 from this evil!

Notch: I don't care if we die. I'd prefer not to. But, the Matrix has it's first chance to overrule the Universe and beyond in literally 13.8 billion years, we can't let them seek that chance.

Light Steve: Wise words. I suppose we might as well get back to Herobrine, I envision that we won't be disappointed.

The team came back to the village to see Herobrine's final product.

Notch: Herobrine? Where are you?

Null: We have some news!

Herobrine: Guys! Guys! You won't believe what Jonas just told me!

He explained the zombie thing to them and they all freaked!!

Null: My story is coming true??

Alex: How is that possible?? Down to every last detail?

Steve: The world is bringing chaos down on us!!

Notch: We need to get the Far Lands now!!

Steve: Hold on, something's actually falling.

Steve was right, what was it though?

Light Steve: That... must be my girlfriend.

Everyone else: Oh... WHAT?!?!

BAM!!

Light Steve: Salutations.

It was Light Alex!

Notch: Light Alex?

Light Steve: I have something to fight for. Someone to come home to.

Herobrine: Since when do you come home?

Light Steve: When the job is done.

Herobrine: Which- oh.

Light Steve: It takes motivation to kill someone like Bloodlust, and I get a hell of a lot of motivation.

Notch: Is that all you get?

Light Steve: Well, I get everyone's honor and appreciation.

Notch: ...

Light Steve: I get all the encouragement I could ever need.

Herobrine: What exactly is she doing here?

Light Alex: Null's narrative is becoming an actuality, isn't it?

Null: Some of the details have been coming true, yes.

Light Alex: Entity 303 is the Philosopher of Defiance, and his absolute favorite thing to do is to screw around with reality.

Notch: So he's just making our nightmares come true.

Light Steve: You know about all this?

Light Alex: Herobrine says that cheating in a war is as fair as it gets, it isn't.

Herobrine: How so?

Light Alex: 303 is "cheating" because he's defying the law, the Universe will correct that. It's like-

Steve: Like when a person dies and then another is born?

Light Alex: More or less... I guess.

Notch: So is he going to get punished for breaking physics?

Light Alex: He's never in the path of correction. So for instance, if he was to lift a giant boulder onto a cliff, the Universe would fix it, but unless he's standing in the path of a giant falling rock, he's free for more corruptive pranks.

Alex: So the only way to kill him is to lead him into his own trap?

Light Alex: More or less.

Light Steve: I tell you it's much better when it's more.

And they kiss...

Notch: Okay, okay, both of you, turn on the windshield wipers!

Light Alex: Sorry. Nonetheless, you have 3 victims that you have to keep from Dreadlord.

Null: Well, 303 is under his control.

Light Alex: Control?

Notch: What's wrong with that?

Light Alex: Just... hold up, why does he have control?

Null: Well, he guided Bloodlust into 303.

Light Alex: But that means Bloodlust has control.

Null: Huh. What sort of weird hoax is this guy building?

Herobrine: He's Bloodlust's doormat! He will do anything to command us if we get overtaken.

And he will make sure 303 does everything according to plan!

Notch: But, you don't have-

Steve: Holy hardcore difficulty, Jonas's village is gonna be overrun.

Light Alex: Go! If you're going to stop him, you have to catch him in his own mistake!

Notch: ...Alright guys, we've got a monster to trap under the bed!

Steve: Doesn't the kid die at the end of that story?

Everyone else: NO!!

4 hours later...

Herobrine: Jonas come on, you gotta trust us!

Jonas: Listen, the attack only comes every 80 years, not even a minute off... EVER!

Null: Keep watch though, it is Halloween.

Jonas: Fine, but this has been the same for 15 generations!!

And one hour later...

Jonas: THE ZOMBIES ARE COMING!!!!

Notch: Yep, now let's go.

No lasers, no defense, no village.

Jonas: Oh my god, I never thought this could happen... on the 79th year.

Null: ...Literally every detail.

Jonas: Well we gotta do something!

Alex: No no no! There's corruption. Okay, these villagers and zombies are probably robots!

Herobrine: Yeah, see Jonas, in the story you come with us.

Jonas: Well, if we can't do anything, I'm going back.

Null: Where? To town?

Jonas: I'm going back to Magmyzodon.

Herobrine: Why would you do that??

Jonas: So that I can lay out a plan, and never get caught up in my own corruptive pranks.

**GASP* ooooo. With the swing of his villager robe, Jonas turned around with red eyes!*

Steve: Did he just dispose of his face?

Null: Entity 303 is Jonas, the main character.

Notch: That's how he does it?

...

Null: Gosh darn it! He's smarter than me!

Herobrine: Smarter, yes. Superior IQ, definitely not.

Herobrine held up a book titled Righteousness Rune Regulations by 303
