

Chapter XIV: The Idiots Who Don't Do Anything

Loading... Update complete.

Steve: Timer's done.

Notch: You think it worked?

Herobrine, Null, and Lary all stood up looking quite dizzy.

Herobrine: How did I get here?

Null: Where is here?

Lary: Why do I have such a low attention span?

...

Light Alex: We can just pray it worked, maybe we'll miss seeing a bunch of smoke plumes.

Notch: We still have to find them, we need to get those other two Runes. Which region is the RICC in?

Alex: The Northern Nether Far Lands.

Light Steve: How're we gonna get to their trail from here?

Dreadlord: Leave that to me.

Null: Have we been given freedom?

Lary: What are we free from?

Herobrine: I feel like I don't have a purpose in the world. Holy crap it feels amazing!

Null: Look, a pawn store!

Lary: You're lucky you have a slight Southern accent or you'd be turning a lot of heads.

Herobrine: I'm breaking curfew by 3 years!

Null: Me too!

Lary: Let's jump off a building!

Herobrine and Null: Yeah!!

Null: Let's blow up a car!

Herobrine and Lary: Yeah!!

Once people began to recognize the C-MOAE, the city started to evacuate. Now they had a lot of space to be idiots.

Dreadlord: By the looks of this building that used to... have a bottom half, I'd say we found their trail.

Light Alex: Which way?

Dreadlord: ...I don't know.

Suddenly a fleet of tanks, bulldozers, and helicopters came right down the trail headed North.

Steve: Probably that way.

Notch: Excellent.

Light Steve: We've gotta stop them.

Notch: What?

Light Steve: They're gonna be too immature to even realize how a gun works, they'll get a nuclear missile catapulted right on top of them, and the Runes will be lost for another decade.

Alex: What's this?

Dreadlord: Oh God bless the negligence of Bloodlust.

He took it and dusted it off. It was the Time Rune.

Steve: They dropped this?

Dreadlord: There was only one goal. Oh we only need one more.

Light Steve: Guys? ...The tanks?

Notch: Right! Let's go.

Following close behind, the team prepared to attack the war machines to prevent them from possibly destroying the Space Rune.

Dreadlord: Alright, we win a quick civil war, and then we stakeout until they sleep.

Steve: Are you crazy? They're not gonna sleep! I- or they- WE are all of the sudden legally allowed to SOOOO many mature and irresponsibly dangerous sources. WE will be up for weeks!

Dreadlord: Well then we'll take it by force.

The war mechs made their way into the city coming down Main street. The Hexad had a new plan, clog the road-

Dreadlord: Everyone has 1 heli, 1 dozer, 2 tanks, and 2 jeeps, stick to your own Rune! All of them have the necessary defensive capability.

Dreadlord with Darkness and Illumination screwed with the sun and turned it on and off. Notch with Time sent all his targets back to their workshops until they were deconstructed and nothing but spare parts. Alex with Life sprung tree trunks and roots, and suddenly there was a crack and the beanstalk. Steve with Matter changed the state of the road's atoms to liquid to drown the wheelers and turned the air solid to crush the heli. Light Alex with Energy summoned lightning to strike down onto her targets. And Light Steve with Righteousness... well let's just say he made his targets NOT morally pure and just. And once the massacre ended, well there's really not much else to say.

Notch: Well done team... should we...?

Dreadlord: No. War is about recognizing the consequences, and we don't have to be responsible for them, we just have to cancel them out! Now let's go find the Space Rune.

Shade (RoD): I like this guy.

The Hexad came across the C-MOAE watching a movie on the jumbotron of the half-destroyed Bedwars field.

Null: Yeah, no it's a 4K LED TV, notice how there's so much clarity.

Herobrine: It's excellent, it makes for a good display of Earth's finest motion cinematography.

Lary: What the heck are we even watching?

Null: One of Earth's favorite tales. If I remember correctly, it's a Shakespearean story. A tragic love story about these 2 people who don't realize their love for each other for almost 10 years. It takes them a series of romantic moments, furious arguments, and the most life-altering events to finally make it clear.

Herobrine: Isn't that Romeo and Juliet?

Null: No it's not quite as famous as that.

The TV: WE WERE ON A BREAK!!!

The 6 of them snuck up behind them, there was a lot of trash on the ground, people threw out so much all over the floor, huh? I guess the Space Rune isn't that valuable.

Dreadlord: Steve are you really that stupid??

Steve: You better be happy I am, otherwise we would be stealing from the Gods of Kings of... other Kings of Countries full of factories that make artificial watermelon.

Dreadlord: That's a really good argument.

Alex: So can we just take it?

Light Steve: I think we kind of already took it, we just aren't holding it.

Steve walked over and picked it up, he kicked his knee against the bleachers, held it in, and they didn't even move their eyes.

Steve: That was too much, my cap just unscrewed!

Dreadlord: Way to take one for the team.

Using the Rune of Matter, they fell through the bleachers and into a pit of... liquid ground.

Notch: Nice.

Steve: I guess that was worth the-

*A bleacher fell through the progressively reshifting hole. Steve- *Bang**

Steve: ...FFFFFFFF. I hate metal.

They didn't even broaden their ears, that bleacher fell 77 feet.

Light Alex: God bless your complete and utter ignorance of... the entire world around you.

Steve: Study nothing, never focus, and if somebody dares you to jump off a cliff, steal their identity and sell bananas for $5.99.

Light Steve: What?

Steve: What do you know I just took the Rune of Righteousness from you with minimum effort.

Dreadlord: You're special.

Steve: I know.

Dreadlord: I gotta tell you though, unless those are organic farmer-grown bananas you've gotta be John H. Patterson.

Steve: Who the heck is that?

Dreadlord: Just a famous banana farmer.

The 6 of them went down into the Nether, as RICC was in the Under Far Lands; the "Underworld" Far Lands, and it wouldn't take very long, as they hadn't traveled far from the Northern Overworld Far Lands. Plus, the shrine was in the North Northwestern UFL. The idiots were still doing nothing, it had been 3 days, the stadium was slowly dissipating.

*CRUMBLE***

The TV: Pivot! Pivot! Pivot! PIVAHT! PIVAHT! PIVAHT!! SHUT UP!! SHUT UP!!

SHUT- AUHP!!

The 3 of them laughed like crazy throughout the entire scene! Suddenly, with weak support, the entire jumbotron fell backward off the stadium!...

Lary: ...I, I don't think it's gonna pivot anymore.

All 3: *LMAO*

Herobrine: Who was it that made this story? *Still Laughing*

Null: I don't even remember.

Lary: Thomas Jefferson?

Herobrine: Who's that?

Lary: He was like a- a famous, uh, birthday card author.

Herobrine: *Cry-laughing* Ahaha. Oh my god.

The Hexad was approximately 3,000 kilometers from the shrine known as the RICC, using RICC, they could import all of the potential energy of the 7 other Runes into the target Rune. They could super energize the Righteousness Rune and bend the rules. Bloodlust doesn't really need to... exist. Right?

Steve: Remember everything I said about the desert? Yeah, I didn't really mean any of it.

Notch: That's understandable.

Light Alex: Current temperature is 50.

Dreadlord: 50? That's it?

Light Alex: ...Yes. That's really hot.

Dreadlord: I forgot, you guys use binary code.

Alex: Is that a nickname?

Dreadlord: ...More or less.

Notch: How pissed is Bloodlust gonna be when it finds out you ignored his command?

Dreadlord: It wouldn't kill me, it would take him almost 450 years to resummon another source of concrete intelligence.

Light Steve: So are you plotting a rebellion?

Dreadlord: If Bloodlust is gone, I'm free. If this has THIS good of a chance of working, then screw my mandatory oath.

Notch: So can you separate Shade from the Rune?

Dreadlord: Eventually.

Light Alex: We really need the RICC?

Dreadlord: I could break the Rune and he could re-materialize.

Light Steve: ...Genius, you'll... break it.

Steve: Do you guys think that Bloodlust is gonna overpower the 3 of them again?

Notch: Will Bloodlust overpower the reprogramming? I'm not sure.

Dreadlord: If so, it won't be as strong. The victims have to have an eligible IQ to be capable of the full potential.

Alex: Good thing we recognized that advantage.

MC Developer: We launch on the 23rd!
