

Prologue

BAM!! It happened. Two titans were born into a world of cubes, titled Notch and Herobrine. Notch was a titan of creation, Herobrine was a titan of destruction. Together, a simple project called Cave Game was born! These two great men were unstoppable combined... and that was the reason for a great power wielded by them together. Their purpose was to exist, as long as they did, every person that entered this cubic dimension could get an interactive experience, and help defeat danger. Through the years Notch and Herobrine were best friends, and amazing partners in building the incredible world.

However, one day, Herobrine came across a strange object in the woods... a massive ruby-looking crystal. It pulsed red, as if it hungered for something. It was not Pixelated, it was undefined! Only by the touch of the 2 caused Herobrine to fall under infection, an ancient desire for killing was set upon him, and it kicked in fast! Herobrine destroyed all in his path to try and satisfy the infection and get rid of it. Notch stopped him to experiment the elements. Herobrine was completely overdosed by this object, which nearly blocked the rest of his mind, so with the feeling that Notch was his enemy and was stopping him from satisfying his infection, he vowed to destroy Notch! Herobrine chased Notch through the whole world to try and kill him, Notch just kept running, but soon became cornered!

Notch was defeated by his now evil brother Herobrine, Herobrine's infection soon began to weaken though, the crystal was not enough. Herobrine was still sick enough though to consider inquiring about the source. Though it was too much for him alone, he needed... assistance! Herobrine took Notch's throne, he wanted to be in control and destroy whatever he wanted, and with all justice gone, he finally had the high end of the stick, and was now able to use his powers to break the world and turn it into a new world, but his new world... would be the doom of everything!

Nobody was now protecting, or watching over anyone, and Herobrine was going insane, he was the only individual with control over the whole world, he was... to an extent satisfied... particularly his infection, but there was one hope.

Alex and Steve, Notch's children were entrusted to a special friend of Notch's when they were only a few weeks old, and only a few days before Notch's death. This friend of Notch's raised Alex and Steve and told them that they were going to have to find a way to stop Herobrine, though he did not tell them that Herobrine was their uncle, nor that they were spawns of a titan. On their 21st birthday, Notch's friend sent them out of his refuge to bring peace.

Alex and Steve found Herobrine at the base of mount Blastomaltius, the most dangerous volcano in the world. Herobrine mounted a vicious defense, flashing swords the moment he made eye contact, but Alex and Steve had other plans of attack.

Long story short, Alex and Steve utilized a simple weapon called a knockback stick, which would cause the victim to go flying without harming them, because Alex and Steve wanted him to suffer. While Steve continued knocking him back against the cliff, Alex built a Nether portal, then waited for Steve. Steve flung Herobrine through the portal and then Alex lit a set of TNT, she dove back through, but Herobrine was not fast enough. He was now banished to the fiery underworld and would not be returning unless he found another portal within somewhere of the vast, nearly insurmountable, lava-filled dimension of the Nether.

*After Alex and Steve returned home to rejoice with the people and their foster father, they began lives of their own... lives of adventure... lives of... ^&6#%W&#^%(?WHATTHEHECK-
